

John Vanderslice

John Vanderslice's fiction and poetry have appeared in several leading journals, including Seattle Review, Laurel Review, Crazyhorse, and Sou'wester, as well as anthologies such as Chick for a Day and Tartts: Incisive Fiction from Emerging Writers. His novel Burnt Norway, a metafictional romance, is available through Lulu.com. His current project is Island Fog, a themed collection of short stories that examines the people and social climate of Nantucket Island,

Massachusetts from both historical and contemporary perspectives. He is currently an Associate Professor in the Department of Writing at the University of Central Arkansas.